STUDY DAY POLICY

The intent of Study Day is to provide students with a period of time to study before final exams. Consequently, classes that begin before 5:00 p.m. during the term are NOT to meet on Study Day and faculty are requested NOT to schedule this day as a deadline for papers, projects or tests. Student organizations are likewise requested NOT to schedule mandatory events or activities for this day. Final exams may be given on Study Day in classes that begin at or after 5:00 p.m. on that day or the final exam in these classes may be scheduled for the last class meeting prior to Study Day. Academic departments requesting exceptions to this policy should consult with the appropriate college dean.
